Cottonwood Public Library's Call to Authors

The Cottonwood Public Library is in search of local Verde Valley authors to participate in the 2015 Author's Forum. This 3rd annual Author's Forum will be held on Saturday, September 26th, 2015 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm at the Cottonwood Parks and Recreation Center at 150 S 6th St. Author registration ends Friday, July 10th.

The purpose of this forum is to gather several local authors in one place to bring attention to the fact that the Verde Valley offers excellent literary talent. As an author, you have the opportunity to sell your books, chat with patrons, and personalize their copy of your book with your signature.

The library received positive feedback last year from the authors and the patrons who attended. The authors enjoyed visiting with patrons and also with other authors. The patrons appreciated the chance to meet the authors and get their books autographed.

If you are a Verde Valley author interested in participating in the 2015 Author's Forum, please call Kyle at 928-340-2782 or Mary at 928-340-2781 by Friday, July 10th, 2015 or stop by the library. The library is located at 100 S 6th St in Cottonwood.
